Farmingville, NY - On February 16, Supervisor Ed Romaine and Councilman Tim Mazzei attended the Eagle Scout Court of Honor ceremony for Joseph C. Conserva. Joseph was presented with a "Certificate of Congratulations" for achieving the rank of Eagle Scout. His project was done at the Elk's Lodge in Patchogue, where he constructed a 25'x5' flower bed with a retaining wall. He also built a kiosk where Elks Lodge members can post upcoming events.

"I commend Joseph for his service to the community and for completing a project that will benefit the members of the Elks Lodge," said Supervisor Romaine.

"Congratulations to Joseph for attaining the highest rank in scouting and I thank him for his outstanding service to the community," stated Councilman Mazzei

Since the first Eagle Scout Award was presented in 1912, no more than 4 percent of all Scouts have attained the Eagle Scout rank.
